MEET...

Scott McClelland
Founder / FX Missions.

Scott lives in Arlington, Texas and will accompany me on the first leg of the journey, May 1 to 8.

I met Scott in a Starbucks here in the Charlotte area about eight years ago. Sharing the same heartbeat for reaching the nations, we quickly became good friends and continue to partner whenever possible.

This is his first trip to Italy. Scott, a businessman, has been engaged in missions for perhaps twenty years, making a hundred trips into Mexico, Central America and Africa. I'm looking forward to his company.

42nd European

Ministry Tour

May 1 to June 12, 2018

Italy and Germany

Seigburg, Pfungstadt, Parma, Fidenza, Torre Pellice, Cuneo, Genoa, La Spezia, Venezia, Trento, Rovereto, Citta D'Castello and Assisi

Since 1997 I have been traveling and ministering in Europe. My heart call is to Italy and the Italian people. In spite of our meager beginnings, over the years, we have seen great growth and significant impact. Additionally, I have spent a great deal of time in at least fifteen other countries of western Europe. On this occasion I will be preaching every Sunday in one city or another and sometimes two towns in the same vicinity. I will be working with our Italian missionary team and introducing American ministry colleagues to future opportunities there. In all I will cover some three thousand ground miles by train and automobile in the six weeks of ministry.

I hope you will follow and pray for me as I send periodic UPDATES like this one. I will do my best to make them brief, informative and interesting.
